

Colouring Pages

Bears may climb trees to eat fruit and berries or because they have been frightened by people or dogs. If they are left alone, they will eventually come down from trees on their own.
